

I am opposed to further concentration of media ownership by an alarmingly small number of companies. We need more diversity and more ability to express a dissenting opinion. Please allow the decision-making process to be open and public. Thank you.